

“Women Stepping Forward for Agriculture”

Symposium

October 5 & 6, 2004

Duck Inn

1345 1st Street

Havre, Montana

USDA, in conjunction with the Montana Agri-Women, Montana Farm Bureau Women, Women Involved in Farm Economics (WIFE) and the Montana Cattlemen, is sponsoring the fourth annual symposium for women involved in the promotion of Montana's agriculture. Issues affecting Montana's rural agricultural communities, female operators and farm/ranch families will be identified and addressed. The symposium will also promote leadership development skills and further support women's leadership roles within Montana's agricultural communities.

REGISTRATION

Cost of registration is $35 prior to September 13 and $45 following September 13.
